Silent Auction

As Co-Chairs of the Silent Auction, we wish to thank all those who so generously donated the many varied and wonderful offerings contained in this catalogue. The Auction would not happen without each and every one of you. From beautiful artwork and handcrafts, bountiful baskets and gifts, to opportunities for delicious dining, pampering, tutoring and chances to learn something new, the choices here are amazing. And, of course, a big thank you to all those who come to bid – high and often, we hope – on Saturday. Janice Huey & Cathy Arrington

The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer
44th Annual Strawberry Festival

Silent Auction Rules

1. The Silent Auction will open at 11 am and close promptly at 2:30 pm, half an hour before the end of the Strawberry Festival.
2. To bid on an item, please PRINT your bid, name, phone number, and email on the bid sheet. Privacy policy note: Phone numbers and email addresses will be used only for contacting auction winners.
3. The highest bid at close of auction will constitute the winning bid. In the event of a dispute, the winning bid will be determined by Mary K Young and Janice Huey.
4. At the close of the auction (2:30 pm), winners' names will be highlighted on each bid sheet. The auction cashiers will then collect bid sheets and organize them for check-out. Please allow about 20 minutes for this task! As soon as the cashiers are ready, winners will be able to make payment and collect their items or certificates. We accept cash or checks made out to The Church of the Redeemer. Please put "Silent Auction" on the memo line.
5. We urge you to pay for your auction items and take them home by the end of the Strawberry Festival on June 10. If you are the highest bidder for an item but are not present at 2:30 pm, you will be notified by phone or email that day. Please come by the church to pay for your item and pick it up no later than Sunday, June 25. If you do not make good on your high bid, The Church of the Redeemer reserves the right to give the next highest bidder an opportunity to purchase the item.
6. All sales are final. No exchanges or refunds on auction items are permitted. All items are sold "as is." No warranties are included. Before bidding please note carefully any restrictions or limitations.
7. Unless otherwise specified, dates and times are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the donor and buyer.
8. Upon payment for the auction item, you waive any claim for liability against either The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer or the donor of the item. Neither the church nor the donor is responsible for any personal injuries or damages to property that may result from the use of property or services sold.
9. Check with your tax advisor as to the deductibility, if any, of individual items.
10. All proceeds from this event support operations and outreach of The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer.

Donors: Please ask a cashier for a donation form if you would like one. Thank you for your contributions!
