O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

This Week at Redeemer

Pledge Drive Update

As of December 1st, we have 84 pledges for a total of $377,933. We had 108 pledges last year, so we haven't heard from many of you. Of those 84, 7 are new and 4 are folks who have returned to pledging after a hiatus. Thank you to those who increased their pledge - nearly half of the pledges received are significant increases. Bless you all!

Adult Forum this week!

On December 10th we'll talk about the gospel of Mark. We'll be reading this gospel during the upcoming church year (Year B). Finally, on Rose Sunday - December 17th - relax and enjoy The Christmas Cantata by Mark Schweizer. Pick up a copy at www.sjmp.com. The cost is $10. Mr. Schweizer is the author of the Liturgical Mystery series set in St. Germaine, North Carolina. It's like Cabot Cove with an Episcopal twist.

Collect of the Day:

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Bethesda Cares:

For a home, family, friends. fellowship, purpose in life. How do we show our appreciation of these God-given gifts to people in our community who lack some or all of them?

We worship and pray together in a township where BETHESDA CARES for those in need of these blessings that we have. On Sunday, November 26 Redeemer will provide our regular rotation-dinner for BETHESDA CARES. Hot food and take-away snacks bring together the needy community in our area. We also have a donation box for clothes, toiletries and other items to help this work all year. It's in the coat rack area of the parish hall.

December approaches and one specific need is warm adult-sized gloves, hats, and heavy socks. Please help us to decorate a THANKSGIVING TREE with these items. As you purchase for yourself or family could you get an extra pair (or 2) to make a colorful tree for those in need in our community? Please contact Barbara Thackray if you have any questions (thackraybm@aol.com).

Redeemer Book Group

The Book Group is reading "The Alto Wore Tweed" by Mark Schweizer. St. Germaine is a quiet little town in the mountains of North Carolina. Quiet until full-time police detective, part-time Episcopal choirmaster and aspiring whodunit novelist Hayden Konig begins his opus amidst murder and hilarious mayhem at St. Barnabas Church. In addition to discussing this liturgical mystery novel, we will continue delving into the forty rules of love that were listed in the book we have just discussed today. No prior reading of the book is required. The meeting for discussing "The Alto Wore Tweed" and the forty rules of love will be on December 17, 2017 at 3:00 pm the home of Susan Grigsby, 7325 University Avenue in Glen Echo. Any questions? Contact Huda Kraske at hqkraske@aol.com.

The book to be read after that is "The Book of Joy" by the Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmund Tutu deals with attaining happiness in a changing world. This book affirms many of the 40 rules of love mentioned above. More on this later.
