

HYMNS & READINGS

August 19, 2018

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Processional Hymn (10:30 am)

432, O praise ye the Lord!

Song of Praise (10:30 am)

S-280, Glory to God

Collect

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Old Testament Reading—1 Kings 2:10-12; 3:3-14

David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I should give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?"

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."

Psalm 111

Confitebor tibi

1 Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the deeds of the Lord! *

they are studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *

and his righteousness endures for ever.

4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *

the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He gives food to those who fear him; *

he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works *

in giving them the lands of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *

all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *

because they are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption to his people;

he commanded his covenant for ever; *

holy and awesome is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; *

those who act accordingly have a good understanding;

his praise endures for ever.

New Testament Reading—Ephesians 5:15-20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Sequence Hymn (10:30 am)

188, Love's redeeming work is done

Gospel—John 6:51-58

Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

Sermon Rev. Cricket Park

Offertory Hymn (10:30 am)

488, Be thou my vision

Final Hymn (10:30 am)

665, All my hope on God is founded

Dismissal—after the organ voluntary, and before any applause Response: Thanks be to God.

Adult Forums will start on Sunday, September 9th at 9:15am!

Ideas for topics and speakers should be directed to the office.

In the summertime, worship assistants will sign up on the board in the Narthex. You can sign up on Sunday, or after for the following Sunday. If you are a lector, you can make a request at office@redeemerbethesda.org and we will send you the readings on Friday by email.

Young people are encouraged to participate in this, even if you have not done it before. Training will be available if it seems necessary.

We resume the regular schedule on September 9th. The September schedule is in the August Redeemer Spirit.

Planning for Homecoming—September 16th

There will be "big doin's" at this year's Homecoming Sunday. We'll celebrate Claudia Serrin's 100th birthday (God-willing!) with a cake and a potluck lunch. More information will be forthcoming. If you would like to help with the planning, implementation, and clean up for this event, let Amma Cricket know as soon as possible.

Don't forget to invite a friend and/or neighbor to attend that morning. Or, if you know of someone who's been away for awhile, please let them know they're missed and we'd love to see them!

Choral Evensong will finish the day with the choir back from their pilgrimage to Bristol, UK and we will hear selections from their trip!

EMBODIED TRUTH: The Moral Teachings of Jesus

An Education for

Ministry Update

Our Tuesday evening class is taking a one-year break. Thank you, Jo Barclay-Beard, for mentoring this group so faithfully. Thank you also for modeling the need for sabbath time.

The Wednesday morning group still has room for new students. Please see Cricket Park for more information. September 12th is the first meeting for Wednesday classes.

EfM prepares lay people for ministry in the church and the world by empowering them with knowledge of scripture, church history, and theology. Cost, which includes textbooks, is $375/year. Scholarships are available. (Compare this to a cost of $600/credit hour at local seminaries. Such a deal!) All learning – no papers or tests. Who could ask for more?

Parents: Please contact Amma Cricket or Deacon Sue to sign your 5th grade–High School student up for Potomac River Anglican Youth by August 26.

Redeemer Book Group

The book group is now reading The Sympathizer by Viet Thanh Nguyen. This is a remarkable and brilliant book narrated by a double agent and takes place in the US and Vietnam. It is a disturbing and fascinating and darkly comical book which starts with the fall of Saigon. The author teaches English and American Studies at the University of Southern California. The book will be discussed September 23 at 3:00 pm at the home of Ron and Sally Pugsley, 8108 Hamilton Spring Road, Bethesda, Md. 20817.

For more information, contact Huda Kraske at hqkraske@aol.com or by calling 301 656 2087.

The book to be read next is The Soul of America by Jon Meecham.
