Adult Forum this Sunday: It's Earth Day! Join the garden "Susans" for a tour of the Redeemer grounds. They will talk about the plants, why they were chosen, and what it takes to care for them. Our gardens are amazing - come learn more about them.

Dear Friends,

Please prayerfully consider signing up for flowers and coffee hour. We all appreciate the beauty of fresh arrangements at the altar. We all share the goodies after church. Let's all take a week's responsibility for these ministries. No one has to do coffee hour alone. No one needs to sponsor flowers alone. Partner with someone and let's share the ministries that we all enjoy.

Coming Up at Redeemer

Healing Ministers! Thad will be having a meeting of the current Healing Ministers and anyone who would like to check out this program. The meeting will be just after the 10:30 service on April 29th. See if this ministry is calling to you!

Safeguarding God's Children training provides participants with the information they need to protect the children they know and care for in their personal lives and the ministries in which they serve. Registration is now open for our spring sessions.

- April 21 from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at Holy Trinity
- April 26 from 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. at St. Columba

All persons who teach Sunday School, are with children at church, are church staff, or are lay Eucharistic ministers MUST attend this training. Vestry members are highly encouraged to attend as well. If you have not taken the training in the last 5 years, you MUST renew your certificate. Register at the diocesan website: www.edow.org. If you have taken this course, but more than three years ago, you can take an on-line refresher. See Bob Yates for details.

Pastoral Care Ministry

We are pleased to announce that Redeemer has formed a new ministry to care for members of our community in need of support. The Redeemer Pastoral Care Ministry in memory of Moses Middleton currently has six members who are working to get activities up and running. The purpose of this ministry is to be a first-line, confidential way for members to ask for help of any kind, and for the church to organize outreach responses as needed. We want to stay informed about people who are sick or lonely, need transportation and meals, or any kind of support. We will try to respond through telephone calls, written notes, visits, and by recruiting other members of the community for help when needed. This ministry will function in addition to the weekly prayer list, and will complement, not replace the direct line of communication with our rector, Cricket, which is always available to every parishioner.

Current founding members of the Pastoral Care Ministry are: Carolyn Killea Rutledge, Barbara Alterowitz, Mary Packard-Winkler, Brooke Anthony, Patricia Snowden, and Toyin Rose.

You can help by contributing to the two new resources the Ministry is setting up. Food and transportation are resources we want to be prepared to offer whenever someone is in need. Please help if you are able by:

1. Contributing to the Redeemer "casserole bank." Cricket has offered the use of her large deep freezer for this purpose. You can make an extra casserole when it is convenient. Use a disposable container, label it for Pastoral Care with the date, contents, and number of servings, and bring it to Redeemer.
2. Offering to drive fellow parishioners in need of transport, for example to a medical appointment. Place your name on the 'Drivers List' if you are willing to be called and consider responding to an occasional opportunity to help as needs arise.

As the Ministry develops, we would welcome offers of other specific talents or resources you think could enhance Redeemer's Pastoral Care Ministry. Please feel free to contact Ministry members or chat with us on Sunday at coffee hour. We will be happy to speak with anyone who would like to provide or request assistance.

Events at St John's Norwood

COMMUNITIES UNITED AGAINST HATE

In January, St. John's became a CUAH member and on Sunday, April 29th St. John's is hosting CUAH's anniversary celebration, A Taste of Communities United, with delicious and fun street food from around world, a raffle and silent auction, extraordinary honorees and a truly inspiring program.

- Highlights of CUAH's accomplishments over the last year.
- Jamie Raskin will honor Maryland State Senator Rich Madaleno for his work over the years advancing CUAH's mission.
- CUAH will honor Daryl Davis, a race relations expert, Grammy award-winning musician and author with an amazing story; over 25 years he has persuaded more than 200 KKK members to abandon the organization using a controversial approach - he befriends them. Check out the documentary Accidental Courtesy: Daryl Davis, Race & America, available on Netflix or his TED talks here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ORp3q1Oaezw> and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fw0vS0qvYo0>. Daryl will also be treating us to a performance during the event.
- Last but not least, CUAH will recognize outstanding student activists from Montgomery County.

Serving Seniors Ministry Brunch

- Sunday, April 29th @ 12:15 pm

On April 29, at 12:15 pm, St. John's will be hosting a brunch in the Parish Hall to promote fellowship and educational opportunities in support of the Serving Seniors Ministry. St. John's will be pleased to welcome Ms. Monica Micklos as our distinguished guest speaker for this event. Ms. Micklos is the Director of the Care Management Program for Seabury Resources for Aging. The presentation topic will be Successful Aging - We all want to lead healthy and fulfilling lives. Learn how proper nutrition, exercise, socialization and community involvement help all of us successfully age. All parishioners are welcome to this event and there will be no charge to attend. See Jane Dealy for more information.

Redeemer Book Group

The group has finished reading a novel: "The Tobacconist" by Robert Seethaler. The year is 1937 and the village boy Franz is sent to Vienna as an apprentice to a tobacconist, a former friend of his mother. During his time there, Franz encounters many new experiences, including love, his friendship with Sigmund Freud, and the Nazi rule in Vienna. The book was published in German in 2012 and has recently been translated into English. It is witty, funny, sad, and quite touching. Discussion of the book will take place at 3 pm on April 22 at the home of Ann Hartman and David Lawrenz. Address: 107 Hesketh Street, Bethesda, Md. 20815. For further information and directions contact Huda Kraske at hqkraske@aol.com or by calling 301 656 2087.

REDEEMER YOUTH NIGHT: April 18 at 6:00 p.m.

April 18 - TOMORROW - 6:00 p.m. Supper, 6:30-7:30 p.m. Program

Topic: "How are we connected to Jesus and each other through Baptism?"

P.R.A.Y. events for the spring!

May 20 is our last P.R.A.Y. date for this year and currently Sue is planning on an event at Sandy Springs Adventure Park and ending with a bonfire and s'mores. This event will be at least 3-4 hours for the youth to get the most out of the park.

Summer Mission

We have enough registrations to proceed with both summer missions! We still have room in the Kentucky mission and maybe a slot or two for Haiti; but we need to know about any additions very soon. I will be sending one more email to parents this week to get last minute sign-ups. Are there any adults from your parishes who are willing to go to Kentucky? I have one dad from Redeemer.

Upcoming Events at St. Dunstan's: A beginning to what we hope are several ways to cooperate in ministry is to share information on activities happening in each other's parishes. Next month at St. Dunstan's: May 12 at 6:00 p.m. is Open Mic Night, and May 14 at 6:30 p.m. is Potomac Valley Youth Orchestra. More cooperative endeavors are being explored by joint meetings of our vestries.
