

THE EPISCOPAL
CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER
BETHESDA, MARYLAND

O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

This Week at Redeemer

Adult Forum "Civil Discourse" We've had great conversations so far with this course from the Episcopal Policy Network. Join the discussion this Sunday.

Holy Week Services

Join us for worship and reflection each night of Holy Week at 7:30 p.m. (Maundy Thursday - simple supper at 6:00 p.m. in the parish hall.)

Where's my name tag? The name tags have been relocated to the stairwell. They are now easily accessible to those entering through the parish hall. Plus, you can easily return them as you go to coffee hour. Please wear your name tags. Geoffrey, Chuyoung, and Anne are still trying learn your names. It helps visitors feel more at ease as well.

Collect of the Day: Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Coming Up at Redeemer

Sign up for Coffee Hour & Flowers!

The sign-up sheets are up in the Parish Hall.

Speaking of Coffee - join Cricket at the Sangamore Starbucks today at 2:15 pm for The Good Book Bible study. First one there - grab a table!

March For Our Lives (protesting gun violence) is on the 24th. Redeemer is joining with the Diocese in providing housing, food, and transportation for the youth who are coming from other dioceses. If you would like to help, contact Susan Graham, grahampubs@comcast.net.

Could you be a Healing Minister?

Healing ministers pray with congregants who present themselves the third Sunday of the month in the St. Luke Chapel. Thad Arrington will be scheduling the next quarter and would be pleased to add more healing ministers to the roster. thadarrington@yahoo.com 301-365-2661

REDEEMER YOUTH NIGHT

Redeemer Youth Night

Time TBD

Redeemer Book Group

The group will be reading a novel: "The Tobacconist" by Robert Seethaler. The year is 1937 and the village boy Franz is sent to Vienna as an apprentice to a tobacconist, a former friend of his mother. During his time there, Franz encounters many new experiences, including love, his friendship with Sigmund Freud, and the Nazi rule in Vienna. The book was published in German in 2012 and has recently been translated into English. It is witty, funny, sad, and quite touching. Discussion of the book will take place at 3 pm on April 22 at the home of Ann Hartman and David Lawrenz. Address: 107 Hesketh Street, Bethesda, Md. 20815. For further information and directions contact Huda Kraske at hqkraske@aol.com or by calling 301 656 2087.

St Johns Norwood

Cantate Chamber Singers will present Les Voix Francaises, the third concert of the 2017-2018 season, on Saturday, March 10, at 5pm, at St John's. The program features the Durufle Requiem, Poulenc's Un Soir de Neige, Saint-Saens' Deux Choeurs, as well as songs of Reynaldo Hahn, performed by Soprano Rosa Lamoureux. Tickets are available at www.cantate.org and before the concert in the West Avenue lobby. A reception follows in the parish hall.

Men in Their Roles as Peacemakers

Meeting for our eighth annual weekend retreat, men at the Church of the Redeemer will gather in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, on the weekend of April 20-22, with David Schlafer as our convener, to share experiences and reflections on what it has meant for us to be "Peacemakers." Sign-up sheet in the parish hall. Questions: Jefferson7019@aol.com

Tea and Yarn

I am inviting church members and friends to come to my apartment at 103 Kenwood House, 5100 Dorset Ave, Chevy Chase for a cuppa' and cookie and to bring whatever yarn they are working on, knitting, crochet, embroidery, etc., or just come to chat, read their favorite poetry, etc. VERY INFORMAL. We meet on the 2nd. and 4th. Wednesdays, 3-6 pm (March 14 & 28). Kenwood House is at the west corner of Dorset Ave. and Little Falls Road, between Little Falls and the Crescent Trail. Park at the front or round the back and enter my number at the front door. I live close to the door. I need contact info, just in case I have to be out of town, which is not expected. I will post dates and time on the board in the social hall, if that is appropriate and also if I need to be away at all.

Holy Land Film Series at St. John's - Join Us!

St John's Norwood Holy Land Committee, in conjunction with Voices From the Holy Land (VFHL), is bringing a documentary film series to the neighborhood over the next two months. Beginning on March 4, St John's will host a screening and moderated discussion of four films, one each Sunday afternoon at 2:30 pm. The VFHL film series, whose hosts also include Ravensworth Baptist, Universalist Unitarian of Arlington, Westminster Presbyterian, and the DC Chapter of Jewish Voices for Peace, is free and open to the public at each venue. Our friends from Redeemer are cordially invited!

On March 11, we'll screen two short documentaries:

Bethlehem: Hidden From View and Gaza: A Gaping Wound. The first short tells the story of Israel's encircling wall around the 'Little Town' of Bethlehem, and its impact on the local Christian and Muslim community. The second short tells the story of ten families who lost loved ones during the 2014 Israeli military offensive against Gaza, through a series of interviews. Our co-moderators are Liana Smith, a local JVP activist and Zeina Azzam, the editor at the Arab Center.

On April 8, our documentary is the hard-hitting Roadmap to Apartheid, narrated by Alice Walker, author of The Color Purple. This documentary, produced by a white South African and a Jewish Israeli, takes a detailed look at the apartheid analogy often, and at times controversially, used to describe the Israeli-Palestinian political relationship. The analogy is a useful framework for understanding the conditions in which many Palestinians feel they live today. Our co-moderators are a local couple, Shelley Fudge of JVP and Jamal Najjab, a Palestinian-American activist.

Please invite your friends for what promises to be an educational and thought-provoking series of documentary films and discussions. For questions, please contact St. John's co-coordinators Nancy Adams (njadams1@verizon.net) and Kirk Campbell (kirkcruachan@yahoo.com).

Safeguarding God's Children training provides participants with the information they need to protect the children they know and care for in their personal lives and the ministries in which they serve. Registration is now open for our spring sessions.

- April 14 from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalene
- April 21 from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at Holy Trinity
- April 26 from 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m. at St. Columba's

All persons who teach Sunday School, are with children at church, are church staff, or are lay eucharistic ministers MUST attend this training. Vestry members are encouraged to attend as well. If you have not taken the training in the last 5 years, you MUST renew your certificate.
