Amen.

Music at Redeemer - New Format

Geoffrey's been busy building next season's concert series, and Music at Redeemer events are now on-line at musicatredeemer.org and on sale at Eventbrite.

The biggest changes for us all this season are that 1) we won't always have events on Sundays, 2) receptions may be before rather than after, and 3) we are going to charge for tickets rather than have a free-will offering.

Sharing the underwriting burden with a paying audience, with the net thrown wider by the enormous Eventbrite, makes sense for us. It expands our reach to places we wouldn't normally be able to go. It will help us take our ministry of sharing the best music in this beautiful space to even more people and on a more sure financial footing. The two liturgies on the series will, of course, remain free of charge. You will be receiving emails over the course of the next few weeks, please read them, and do everything you can to encourage your friends and neighbors to attend.

The first concert occurs the weekend after Labor Day, on Saturday (not Sunday), September 8 at 5 p.m.

From Amma Cricket to Parents of young people 5th grade and above:

Over the past two years, Deacon Sue and the clergy of Redeemer, St. Dunstan's, and St. Patrick's have planted the seeds for a long-term cooperative effort called the Potomac River Anglican Youth (P.R.A.Y.). In our review of this program we realize that in order for this collaboration to work, our young people need to meet together a minimum of twice a month.

For this to happen, parents of said youth must commit to get them to the meetings! Please commit by August 26th.

If everyone who participated in a P.R.A.Y. event last year came regularly to meetings, we would have a group of 15-20 youth. If we have enough high school students (minimum of 5), Sue will have a program for them specifically. Young people need a cadre of their peers who will support each other as Christians as they negotiate their world. Please mark your calendars now and support your children's faith journey. And, please e-mail rector@redeemberbethesda.org to let Cricket and Sue know that you are making the commitment.

The directory photos are posted on the Membership board. The proof has been corrected and sent back to Lifetouch. When they are delivered, each family who had a picture taken will receive a directory.

"Out of the Office" Office!

Cricket will not hold office hours at Sangamore this week, but will be back on the 16th.

Redeemer Book Group

The book group is now reading The Sympathizer by Viet Thanh Nguyen. This is a remarkable and brilliant book narrated by a double agent and takes place in the US and Vietnam. It is a disturbing and fascinating and darkly comical book which starts with the fall of Saigon. The author teaches English and American Studies at the University of Southern California. The book will be discussed September 23 at 3:00 pm at the home of Ron and Sally Pugsley, 8108 Hamilton Spring Road, Bethesda, Md. 20817. For more information, contact Huda Kraske at hqkraske@aol.com .

The book to be read next is the Soul of America by Jon Meecham.
