O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

This Week at Redeemer

THE FLOOD UPDATE

Not much is new this week. We are moving forward with the electrical, phone, Internet repair and hope to have news on the elevator soon.

The Blood Drive is next week - give blood, save a life, feel wonderful, get tested for antibodies!

Thanks to Rector Patty Alexander, the Blood Drive shall go on! The drive is June 30th from 11:00am to 5:00pm. All signups will be by email to bob@bobyates.net. Because of the virus restrictions there will not be any walk-ins, all donors must have a time and arrive only at that time. There are many steps that insure the safety of the staff, volunteers and you the donors. So, pick a time and send an email. St. Dunstan's is at the corner of Massachusetts Ave. and Westbard Ave, and a few slots are still available!

NOTE: The Red Cross has started testing for the Covid-19 antibodies for all donors. This is not to determine if you have the virus, but instead if you have the antibodies that could save someone else, who may be important to you!

The Rev. Patty Alexander and our friends at St. Dunstan's have invited us to take part in a discussion of the Rev. Peter Jarrett-Schell's book *Seeing My Skin. This book is available free online during the month of June. There are other resources listed on the diocesan website as well.

Another E-mail Hack:

Over the weekend Susan Graham-Fitzgerald's email was HACKED. You may have received an email from her asking for "A FAVOR" and, if you responded, in a subsequent email asking you to send a $200 gift card. DO NOT DO THIS!!! This is a SCAM. DELETE THE MESSAGE. Susan is on-line and working to undo the digital damage. Our apologies for the hassles.

Collect for Sunday:

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 13
Romans 6:12-23

We've made a few adjustments, hence the new address. Once you are in the meeting, PLEASE mute yourself. If you do not, the host(s) will do it for you. We know it's weird. Limiting the number of microphones open makes the sound better and eliminates feedback - which is really annoying. Be aware that we are recording the meeting. If you make any noise (including touching your phone) you will fill the screens on the recording.

A discussion based on the readings for the upcoming Sunday

The Building is Closed; the Church has been deployed!

We won't let COVID-19 stop us from doing good and sharing what we have:

Manna Food Center Ministry

Manna Food Center has requested that monetary contributions are their priority at this time. Please go to www.mannafood.org to help. If you would also like to offer nonperishable items, please place them in the plastic bin at the church entrance near the labyrinth. Redeemer is collaborating with St. John's Norwood Episcopal Church, the Islamic Community Center of Potomac, and St. James Episcopal Church, to help Manna Food Center supply food items to the local community in need.

Redeemer Book Group

Last year, our Book Group read the book "Just Mercy" by Bryan Stevenson. It is the author's memoir in which he tells the tale of Walter McMillan, who was arrested in 1987 for a murder he did not commit and sentenced to die in the electric chair. Mr. McMillan fell victim to a racist and incompetent legal system in Alabama, which Mr. Stevenson, a Harvard educated lawyer of color, challenged. During the month of June, Warner Bros. is offering free rentals of this stunning legal drama "Just Mercy" streaming on various platforms. This film shows one aspect of racial injustices that plague our society. It is highly recommended.

e-mail issues

Many parishes including Redeemer have experienced parish leaders and parishioners receiving emails from a personal email account created by a scammer who is impersonating the rector or a leader at the parish. DO NOT respond to them. Please be careful and delete it if you are the one getting them!

Below are the email addresses used by the staff. Please be sure to check the sender's address if you receive an email that sounds suspicious.

No one from Redeemer will ever ask you to buy gift cards or send money. THIS INCLUDES FELLOW PARISHIONERS.

Please be careful!
