FALL CLEAN-UP AND PAINTING

It's time to clean up the grounds again. Are you willing to give us 2 hours on Saturday, October 17th (rain date Sunday, October 18th)? There is quite a bit of work to do and we could use your help. We envision having just 5 - 6 people at any one time. Select a time: 8:00 to 10:00; 10:00 to 12:00; 12:00 to 2:00; or 2:00 to 4:00. Weeding and digging holes are the biggest need. Hate ivy? There is a lot of it to be pulled and dug out by the roots. Planting and transplanting are in the works also. Don't worry if you're not a gardener. My experience is someone having to say to me, "Weed - bad - remove; plant - good - leave alone". Bring your tools and bring your gloves. If you don't have any tools Redeemer has some you can use. Hope to see you on October 17th. Wear your masks and physical distance - we want everyone to remain healthy until we're back together.

BONUS: Some members of the choir will be rehearsing from 12:00 to 1:30 outside on the labyrinth.

This is a video tour: Video Tour

Redeemer Cookbook!

We can't eat together right now, but we can remind each other of what we are missing. Your favorite one-pot recipe? Your signature dip or appetizer? Your best dessert? Start making notes on what you will share -- details coming soon. If anyone would like to be part of the Cookbook working group, please email Marie at mbcaulfield@verizon.net.

Feed the Hungry in Montgomery County

Manna Food Center continues to be in critical need of non-perishable food items to distribute to the more than 63,000 Montgomery County residents experiencing hunger and food insecurity. You can help by simply dropping off non-perishable items in the marked plastic bin at the church entrance near the columbarium. An alternative way of giving is through monetary contributions .

Olive Oil Ministry Holiday Sale

Olive Oil Ministry Holiday Sale. Redeemer continues to sell Palestinian olive oil as a member of the Olive Oil Ministry, the local ecumenical group of churches that supports Palestinian farmers and their way of life. It's not too early to buy olive oil as a holiday gift. Please contact Marie France (tweedfrance@gmail.com or 301.320.1534) before Saturday, November 14, for parking lot pickup on Sunday, December 6 (details to follow later this fall.) Oil before the holiday sale also can be ordered for pickup later in September. Two kinds of organic olive oil are available in half-liter bottles ($20): Nabali (lighter, fruitier) and Rumi (robust, spicier). Jenin, a blend is available in 1-liter cans (tins) ($30).

Palestinian farmers and their families depend considerably on our continued support through our enjoyment of their truly delicious oil.

Redeemer Book Group

We met last month to discuss Trevor Noah's memoir Born a Crime and had a great conversation about the book and the comedian. We agreed that the next book we will discuss is A Passage to India by EM Forster, which was originally published almost a hundred years ago. It is a novel by an English author set against the backdrop of the British Raj and the Indian independence movement in the 1920's. The novel tells of the clash of cultures in India which Britain totally controlled. The idea of true friendship between the races was a radical one in Forster's time. The book will be discussed virtually on Nov. 8 at 3:00 pm. Bob Dresser will send out the zoom link for the meeting for inclusion in the weekly bulletin. He will also send a reminder to those that we know about on the day of the meeting.

The book that we will be reading next will be Vanishing Half by Brit Bennet

About the 10:00am service: This service follows the format of the "Prayers for Individuals and Families" in the Book of Common Prayer 1979. It is a worship service that focuses on families with children - a "Children's Chapel" as it were. Adults are very welcome too! This service gives Redeemer families a chance to worship together before Sunday School begins.
