Collect for Sunday March 21:

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings for Sunday March 21:

- Jeremiah 31:31-34 read by Thad Arrington
- Hebrews 5:5-10 read by Karen Stewart
- John 12:20-33
- Psalm 51:1-13
- or Psalm 119:9-16

Prayers of the People: Michael Mershon

Need Reserved Sacrament? Collect yours from Cricket.

Be ready to come to church! Sign the Covenant Today

Whether we meet outside or inside, we need your covenant to help keep us all safe. Go to the waiver/covenant by clicking here:

Daily Prayers to Bracket Your Weekdays

Morning Prayers, features the clergy via your regular phone. We invite you to join us at 10am, Monday through Friday. Call 508-924-1769.

The second, Compline, takes place at 8pm, Monday through Friday. Join us to settle yourself for the night. The Compline link is on the Redeemer website and in the calendar below.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Manna Food Pantry

Chrissy deFontenay and Ben Ivins take items to Manna Food Center every week. There are many hungry folks in our county - even in Bethesda! Please consider purchasing a couple of items for the pantry box when you go to the store this week.

Nourishing Bethesda

Speaking of hungry people here, this coalition of churches and private businesses is feeding 270-300 families each week.

Nourishing Bethesda invites you to do a 40-day collection to assist them in their mission. Place one shelf stable item in a box every day in Lent. At Easter, we'll deliver these items to St. John's, Norwood. More information is to come.

You can contribute financially by clicking here. Select Nourishing Bethesda from the dropdown menu. You can feed a family for a week for $25. To volunteer go to NourishingBethesda. There is a need for transportation help on Fridays.

Redeemer/St Dunstan's Blood Drive

April 5th from 10:00am to 4:00pm

Safely give of yourself so that another may live. It can be your family, your friends, a parishioner, someone in your community or a stranger; but the joy of giving comes back to you! To sign up send an email to Bob Yates with a time that works for you. Slots are controlled and filling up fast.

Help Wanted - Volunteer Opportunity

Once the elevator installation is complete and the platform constructed for the parish hall cabinets, the things that are in the parish hall right now will need to be moved downstairs or to shelving. The parish hall will need to be cleared of everything before the flooring can be installed. Enough shelving has been installed so nothing needs to be stored on the floor. If you are able to help, please contact Bob, bob@bobyates.net, and work out a time. Be aware – the parish hall is filthy so make sure to wear old, tattered, messy clothes.

Adult Formation in Lent

Sunday series on Ways to Pray. All at 9am on Sundays

March 21: Guest artist Lisa Palchick shares praying with icons and mandalas

March 28: Palm Sunday - no adult forum.

Sacred Grounds: Another group will be formed for Eastertide. The Rev. David Wacaster of Good Shepherd in Silver Spring will be leading the group along with a co-leader to be determined. The dates and time are also being determined. If you would like to attend this stunning, and soul-searching, 10-week course on Racism and America, please e-mail Cricket (rector@redeemerbethesda.org).

Redeemer Book Group

The Redeemer Book Club met on zoom on Sunday, March 7. We had a lively discussion of Caste: The Origins of Our Discontent, by Isabel Wilkerson. The next meeting will take place on Zoom at 3 pm on April 11. We will be discussing the book Woman of Troublesome Creek by Kim Michele Richardson. The book is a novel of historical fiction set in Appalachia during the 1930's depression. It explores the fascinating and unique blue-skinned people of Kentucky and the brave Pack Horse librarians who wove their way shack to shack dispensing literacy and hope.

The following meeting (date to be determined) will discuss The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah. The book tells the story of two sisters in France during World War II, and their struggle to survive and resist the German occupation of France. All are welcome. The Zoom link will be distributed in early April. For more information, please contact Bob Dresser robert.dresser@gmail.com or Huda Kraske hqkraske@aol.com.

The History of Slavery:

The First 200 Years— an encore presentation by Karen Stewart.

Join Karen on Wednesday evenings in Lent for her fascinating course on Slavery in America. Karen takes us on a journey that will open our eyes to the horrors of this practice in American history. Horrors that continue to haunt us to this day. This encore presentation is a deeper look at this history. If you've attended her presentations at Adult Forums before, there will be more information for you this time around.

Classes are on WEDNESDAY EVENINGS on Zoom. This is a six-week course from February 24th to March 31st. Each class runs an hour and fifteen minutes, from 7:30pm to 8:45pm. You are strongly encouraged to commit to attending all sessions. Please register for the class by e-mailing the rector: rector@redeemerbethesda.org. The link is <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85912028288?pwd=OWhGSHdsVE1SVBYdIFPQWV2R2R2JVQT09>.

E-mail Security

Many parishes including Redeemer have experienced parish leaders and parishioners receiving emails from a personal email account created by a scammer who is impersonating the rector or a leader at the parish. DO NOT respond to them. Please be careful and delete it if you are the one getting them!

Below are the email addresses used by the staff. Please be sure to check the sender's address if you receive an email that sounds suspicious.

No one from Redeemer will ever e-mail you to ask for gift cards or send money. THIS INCLUDES FELLOW PARISHIONERS. Please be careful and report the scam to the FBI: www.fbi.gov
